

BLINK

Gender education in the blink of an eye

Concept

BLINK is a device to support parents and easy to use for children to create gender equality education at school and at home. BLINK analyzes the images of elementary school textbooks looking gender inequality images, colors its LEDs based on whether stereotypes have been identified or not and shows a question for the child, to start the conversation with adults, in his screen.

