

Sicurando is for the population on the national soil and the Public Administration that want to increase the resistance against calamitous events.

This is a civil protection app that, through multiple functions also interactive, involves informs and helps the user, differently from other applications of regional type and focused mainly on the weather warning.

Sicurando differs in the market as national level and multifunctional.

Projected by:
Cappella Laura, Cola Sofia, Liberatori Niccolò

