

DOTTORATO IN MANAGEMENT AND LAW
CURRICULUM IN DIRITTO DELL'ECONOMIA
CICLO XXXVII

CLASS OF INTERNATIONAL LAW
(Prof. Luca E. Perriello)

December 15th, 2021 at 11.00 am • Room D2

Looking beyond the Litigation-Arbitration Alternative in International Contracts

Prof. Matteo WINKLER
HEC Paris

Matteo Winkler is associate professor of law and CEMS academic director at HEC Paris, where he also co-chairs the diversity committee.

After pursuing a Ph.D. at Bocconi University and a Master of Laws (LLM) at Yale Law School, and working as a lawyer in Italy for several years, he quit the profession to become a full-time scholar in France. His research focuses on international business transactions, human rights and diversity and inclusiveness, all subjects he teaches at HEC.

Greetings

Prof. M. Serena CHIUCCHI, Head of the Department of Management

Introduction

Prof. Daniele MANTUCCI, Coordinator of the Business Law Curriculum in the PhD Program in Management and Law

Concluding Remarks

Prof. Luca E. PERRIELLO

For further info, please contact: l.perriello@staff.univpm.it